

PRESS RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

Mulford Plastics Indonesia attends the biggest building material exhibition

Renovation Expo is the largest annual building material and architectural exhibition in Indonesia featuring the latest trends, developments and services of leading local and international companies engaged in the field of building material, interior design, exterior furnishing and architectural design.

Mulford Plastics Indonesia has participated in this event for the last seven years showcasing our diverse range of products from roofing materials in polycarbonate, PVC and fibreglass to vents and Aluminium composites to the some 30,000 visitors that include Architects; Design Consultants; Developers & Project Owners; Distributors & Agents; Government. Each year we have participated the result have been very good generating 200 to a potential value of IDR.1000,000,000,- and provides us with the access to a network of new customers to show them not only our products but the solutions we can deliver in sheet and value add.

